(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether the Tribunal has adjudicated the reasons for imposing ban; and

(d) if so, the details thereof, organization-wise?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (CH. VIDYASAGAR RAO)

(a) to (d): According to the provisions of section 19 of the Prevention of Terrorism Ordinance, 2001, any organisation or a person affected by the inclusion of the organisation in the schedule as a terrorist organization can make an application to the Central Government for removal of its name from the schedule. Where an application so made is refused, the applicant may further apply to a Review Committee constituted by the Central Government under the chairmanship of a sitting or retired Judge of the High Court. A review Committee for the purpose of this section is in the process of being constituted. No application for review of inclusion of names of the organisations in the schedule to Prevention of Terrorism Ordinance, 2001 has so far been received by the Central Government.

Details regarding the organisations declared unlawful under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967, the status of the Tribunals constituted and status of adjudication in each case, organization-wise, is enclosed.

Statement referred to in reply to parts (a), (b), (c) and (d) of Lok Sabha Unstarred Question No. 3525 by Shri Ramsheth Thakur and Shri T.M. Selvaganapathi for reply on 11th December, 2001.
